

DAILY DEMOCRAT

LOUISVILLE:

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1868.

THE CITY.

Circuit Court.
This tribunal adjourned until Friday in order to observe Thanksgiving day.

Closed.

The offices of the Auditor and Collector of Internal Revenue will be closed to-day.

Open at New Albany.

Many Fredericks' German opera groups are performing at New Albany with great success.

Stealing Wine.

James Johnson was yesterday arrested for stealing wine from C. Gray, and lodged in the First-street station.

Closing of the Postoffice.

The postoffice will be closed to-day from A. M. to 3 P.M. The carriers' department will open at 3 P.M.

An Inspector.

The name of Wm. Atwood, a notable gentleman of our city, was assumed by a drunken scamp in the Police Court day before yesterday.

A Sprightly Boy.

A lively boy was last night in the small hall of Masonic Temple, but who gave it, and under what aspects it was given, we are unable to say.

Honorably Acquitted.

Ambrose Simonds and Sidney Alexander, who were charged with stealing a watch from A. House, were yesterday discharged by the City Court.

Police Business.

The street-walkers were all astir last night. The police made but very few arrests, and none of general interest. It was a dull and unprofitable day in police circles.

Increase of Travel.

A large number of persons arrived from all quarters at our hotels last night. The registers were all filled, and up to a late hour they were still pouring in from every train and boat that arrived.

A Trio of Women on a "Bender."

Ellen Burns, Mrs. Stanton, and a woman who was too drunk to give her name, were arrested yesterday and lodged in jail for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.

A Holiday.

All the schools will be closed to-day, and the boys and girls will have a good old-fashioned holiday. We hope they may all eat, "drink and be merry," for Thanksgiving comes but once a year, "goit while you're young."

Fine Boutonniere.

The advertisement of C. Kehler, French boot-maker, next door to the Demarest office, was accidentally omitted yesterday. It will be found in this morning's paper. Mr. Kehler is a very superior workman.

Noyes' Great Circus.

This great institution left its canvas yesterday and departed for the South. We can assure our Southern friends that this is one of the very best circuses that ever visited Louisville. It is an original show.

Escape and Battery.

The dashing "yellow gal," Lizzie Jackson, who committed an assault and battery on one of her salesmen named Louis Jones, was presented in the City Court yesterday, and the case was referred to the grand jury.

Grand Opera Next Week.

The balance of Mr. T. H. Davis' company to fill his engagements to Louisville and our community at the grand opera promised by the former management. The present management, being desirous of keeping the public supplied with every variety of entertainment known to other cities, have arranged an engagement with the celebrated German opera troupe of Mr. Gran, which has recently achieved such distinguished success throughout the country.

We congratulate our readers, and the public generally, upon the prospect they have of hearing a first class grand opera next week. This will be the greatest feature of the festival.

The tables were loaded with all the delicacies of the season, and the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity. The admission fee and supper has been fixed at the trifling sum of fifty cents, and since the affair has proved so successful, the ladies have determined upon giving another supper-to-night on the same terms. It is a good cause, and we hope to see their large audience.

Excuse.

Ashen House, charged with setting fire to the building which he occupied as a grocery, on Marshall street, between Jackson and Hancock, on Monday night, will have an examination before the City Court this morning.

A Robbery.

The weather was dark, cloudy and gloomy yesterday. A drizzling rain fell throughout the day and but few people appeared on the streets. Nothing of much interest occurred in the line of local events and peace and quietness was everywhere.

Extensive Fishing Party.

A party comprising Oliver Lucas, John Vandenberg, Billy Marion and John Wall, left for the Little Miami river, Fred, Hunt, and the Cincinnati commercial, will be the guide of this scientific angling party.

Peculiar Strike.

Within the past few weeks an unusual number of our people from abroad have applied at the different steamship offices for a night's lodgings. There is an emanation in these places other than the old walls and roof that shelter us from the autumn weather, and it is hard to even over-greatly sus-pect such a possibility. The applicants are all from abroad, and we suspect that our city affords a greater accommodation to suffering humanity.

Attempted Robbery.

The robbery of Col. Dunham was committed on Tuesday night by a couple of expert robbers. Their movements, however, were hasty, as they made their exit through a window, the back door and another window. They took all the cash in the pantries, and left with our any articles of value. They made a very narrow escape with their lives, as Col. Dunham stood at the door through which they entered, ready, with his umbrella, to lop them down. The outlaws carried off the money and a grand lottery.

Burglary.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on Third street, between Chestnut and Broadway, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night, and a large amount of valuable jewelry was stolen. They entered the house from the rear, and it seems that they had full sway during the slumbers of the inmates. Among the articles stolen were one gold hunting case, two pearl, and diamond, gold hunting cases, and one gold and diamond ring.

COUPLES.

The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Morris, on

DAILY DEMOCRAT

LOUISVILLE:

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1868.

News by the Mails.

THE STATE.

Newport has the small-pox—body, -Hemp sells at $8 55 per cwt, in the Lexington market.

Large dredges of logs are daily passing through Lexington.

P. B. Bryce has been appointed conductor on the Henderson railroad.

The body of a negro infant was found in a well near Lexington a few days since.

One hundred thousand dollars has already been paid out for corn in Fayette county.

Hogs are being shipped from Paris at a lively rate, but prices were steady at first.

A few silver ring and gold watch-were sold some miles south from Mrs. Bay's Parcels.

It is said that Mrs. Roger Hanson is preparing, or having prepared, a file of distinguished habeas corpus.

Cars on the Henderson railroad are now running a distance of twenty-seven miles from that elated city.

A protracted meeting at the Christ church in Lexington is in progress. Many additions have been made.

Prof. Lockhart, Principal of the Paris Academy, has been appointed School Committee for Bourbon county.

Mr. Robert Todhunter sold to Dr. A. W. Wilson, a young oil-drill, by lighting out of a Yorkshire mare.

Paris has great improvement in the Bourbon mare market during the past week, prices having increased about $1 per head, and a lively demand.

Mr. John A. Williams, late an attaché of the Paris Free Kentuckian, has accepted the situation of clerk of the Warren House, at Hot Springs, Ark.

David A. Sayre, Esq., has been elected a director in the Northern Bank of Kentucky, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. T. Duncan, Jr., Esq.

In the Kenton County Court yesterday the will of the late John W. Collier, Sr., was presented and admitted to probate. The sum of about $200,000 worth of property.

George W. Coggin, of Bourbon county, sold to Mr. Thorne, of New York, three mares for the sum of $2,200, and one gelding by C. M. Clay, Jr., to Col. S. D. Bruce, for $600.

Mr. John McLelland, of Bourbon, has one six-year-old bullock that weighs 3,000 pounds, and twenty-five three-year-olds averaging about 2,000 pounds.

Washington wants to have a general exhibition of American paintings this winter.

Rev. Mr. Llewellyn Davies, of London, told his congregation, on All Saints' day, that the four leading points of our duty are, to love God, to love man, to do good, and to die well.

The divorce of Ticknor and Tieknor has come up again in Chicago, in the shape of an application by Ticknor to the court for a decree of nullity.

—We mourn with Brigham Young, who died yesterday, and is interred in the Salt Lake City cemetery.

An aged citizen of Troy, N. Y., died there last week while reading the Bible in family worship.

Kindly promises to inspect his property, and to give us news as soon as he inspects Kennedy.

They have in New York the "whale edest hits," the "wicked bonnets," and the wicked people under them, their countenances, gestures, and deportment, to the entire satisfaction of the public.

Barnum has the new museum in New York, and people say he has split the stock and business equally in four.

"Bugs detectives" are used to penetrate New York, annoying property owners in their efforts to turn their houses into saloons.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the sum of $2,000,000, to the War Department, and a policy of insurance upon his husband's life of $500,000.

She has bought a farm in Ohio, where a few days ago, she sold her home, and moved north.

City for Elizabethtown, Ky., has married a gaucho singer she caused to be Mrs. Ticknor.

—Henry Edwards is an orator, who, in addressing his constituents, that Mr. Edwards "is a thorough Roman Catholic, and of the worst description."

—He is to be tried for the murder of his wife.

—The new insane asylum in Pennsylvania is to be built at Danville, and is to be completed next summer.

—One of the speakers at the Woman's Budget Conference in Boston, demanded the young men of the country to "come on with courage and take the hand of the Anna Dickinsons." What answer did this young courage is needed for the feast?

Rev. Albert Barnes, the author of the Commentary, is visiting John M. Blair, of St. Louis, to whom he has given him a formal recognition to recompense the civilities shown by his to the distinguished clerical visitors.

James Dudley, auditor, sold the